

Rodney Seaborn Playwrights Trust

Your Gift to the Australian Performing Arts

Dr. Rodney Seaborn established the Rodney Seaborn Playwrights Trust in 1995 for the purposes generally of encouraging and supporting playwrights and the development of scripts within Australia.

Since its establishment, the Trust has presented, on an annual basis, the Rodney Seaborn Playwright's Award. Currently valued at $20,000, it is a grant in support of the further professional development of an approved script.

Successful applicants since 1995 include Don Reid (Codgers), Campion Decent (Holy Ghosts), Debra Oswald (The Peach Season) and Reg Cribb (Boundary Street).

A later Trust initiative was the establishment of the Rodney Seaborn Playwriting Support Fund. Grants of up to $5000 are offered, on an annual basis to provide assistance to playwrights and others working in the area to advance knowledge and appreciation of playwriting as an art form.

Support fund grants have led to a number of valuable outcomes in the form of playwriting conferences, workshops, websites and publications.

The Trust currently receives funding from the Rodney Seaborn Estate and although is closely associated with the activities of the Seaborn Broughton & Walford Foundation it is a legal entity separate from it.

The Trust is listed on the Register of Cultural organizations under subdivision 30-B of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1977.

Accordingly the Playwrights Trust is asking you to consider giving a donation so that we may continue Dr. Seaborn's inspired vision of supporting new Australian plays by Australian writers. Your contribution would be most appreciated; all donations of $2 or more, are tax deductible.
